Terms and conditions

Press accreditations are assigned to a maximum of 2 persons per medium per day (with an exception to television). For photographers is maximum of 1 person per medium per day in place. Freelance (photo)journalists must send a conformation of assignment. Journalists/photographers must possess a valid press-card.

By applying and accepting a press accreditation, you agree that the pass is only used for media purposes. All photographers may sell their images for media use only - photos cannot be sold or given away to competitors/participants without the permission of the organization.

During the European Championships, taking pictures at the event site is only allowed for personal use (non-commercial purposes, including no facebook), DigiShots is the exclusive photographer for selling photos of the event.
